

Questions you may be asked in an interview:

1. What makes you think this is the right school for you?
2. Why are you interested in this particular institution?
3. What academic areas are you interested in exploring?
4. What do you expect to be doing ten years from now?
5. What have you liked and disliked about your high school?
6. What is the last book you read?
7. What part of yourself would you most like to improve over the next four years?
8. What magazines/newspapers do you read regularly?
9. What are your most important extra-curricular activities?
10. Describe your strengths; discuss your weaknesses.
11. How would your best friend describe you?
12. What do you hope to get out of your college experience?
13. What will you bring to our community?

Questions you may want to ask during the interview:

1. What is distinctive about the college?
  2. Can you elaborate on academic programs that fit my interests?
  3. Will I have easy access to computers?
  4. What are the strengths and weaknesses of the college's advising system?
  5. Will I have access to special equipment as a first-year student?
  6. What type of campus employment is there if I don't qualify for work study?
  7. Are there new programs or facilities that will be available in the next couple of years?
  8. What are the college's most recent graduates doing now?
  9. Is the college "need blind" in its admission policies?
  10. How many students in the freshman class returned for their sophomore year?
  11. What types of academic support services are available at no additional cost (i.e. tutoring, counseling, etc.)?
  12. What do students do when they aren't studying?
  13. How would you describe a student who is a good fit for your institution?
  14. Do you have special interest residence halls?
- Describe your program of transition for freshmen?